

Just because it's not wrong, doesn't make it right

We live in a world where children so often are given the message that the ends justify the means; where children's ethical education can come from a t-shirt slogan or bumper sticker, an Internet site, or the evening news; where rigid moral absolutism or moral relativism has replaced true ethical thinking. How do we raise ethical children in an ethically-challenged world?

If you would like the answer to this question, join author Barbara Coloroso for a series of informative and thought-provoking workshops Monday, August 18th.

Ms. Coloroso will present her first program from 9:00 a.m.—4:00 p.m. for social service professionals, educators, nurses, school counselors, and other professionals that work with youth. Held at The Lodge, Bettendorf, the cost is $115 per person and includes continental breakfast, lunch, & continuing education units.

Co-sponsored by — the Community Foundation of the Great River Bend, the Davenport Community School District, the Amy Helpenstell Foundation, Bud & Esta Helpenstell, Modern Woodmen of America, the Moline Foundation, and Weerts Funeral Home.

Parents and others who care for children will want to join Barbara Coloroso Monday evening from 6:30—8:30 pm to learn more about raising ethical children in an ethically-challenged world.

This program is FREE and will be held at the North High School Auditorium, 626 W. 53d St. Davenport, IA
