The annual Administrative Professionals Day After-Work Soirée presented by Bethany for Children & Families will be 4-7 p.m. April 27 in the Gold Room of the Hotel Blackhawk, Davenport.

According to a news release, employers can treat their administrative assistants or professionals to “an evening of relaxation and pampering, including appetizers, a signature drink, and a chance at door prizes, along with massages, manicures, health assessments and tips on how to reduce stress in the workplace.”

Attendees may bring one package of diapers and receive an extra ticket for a door prize. Diapers will be distributed to families in need served by Bethany programs.

Early registration, at $25 per person, is due Wednesday. After that, the cost goes to $30. Attendees can register up until the day of the event and walk-ins are welcome.

Registration can be completed at www.bethany-qc.org or by calling (309) 736-6642.

Parties fund fight against breast cancer

Reservations also are being accepted for two events connected to the 2011 Stylin’ Against Breast Cancer, presented by Trinity Health Foundation in partnership with Always a Woman, Midwest Hope and Healing, the American Cancer Society and the Trinity Cancer Center.

On April 20, there will be a wine and cheese party from 6:30-9 p.m. at the Quad-Cities Waterfront Convention Center, Bettendorf. New this year is Penguins Entertainment, which will provide “dueling pianos” during the event. The party also includes a raffle and light hors d’oeuvres and wine.

Tickets for the wine and cheese party are $20 per person with a reservation or $25 at the door. Groups of 20 or more will receive 20 free raffle tickets.

On April 21, the annual Stylin’ luncheon and fashion show will be held at the Waterfront Convention Center. Doors open at 11 a.m. with the luncheon beginning at 11:30 a.m. Tickets are $25 per person.

Admission to both events is available for $40. To reserve tickets, call Trinity Health Foundation at (309) 764-7610 or go to www.trinityhealthfoundation.com.

Painting franchisee enters local market

Brad Yaeger of Burlington, Iowa, has opened a Fresh Coat Painting franchise in the Quad-City region.

Founded in 2004 in Cincinnati, Fresh Coat Painters is a national company that provides painting contracting services for residential, commercial and governmental customers in the United States and Canada.

Yaeger said he expects to hire local painters.
