

ne. That's all the case worker was looking for: one used car engine for a 2007 Ford Sedan. A hearing-impaired mother of two needed to replace the engine so she could get to and from work. Her case worker from a different agency contacted Bethany because he had exhausted all of his resources and still didn't have a solution. After hearing the details, Bethany's worker called the agency's Development Office. Were there financial resources that could assist this mother who had worked long and hard to provide appropriate care for her children? Three days later, Bethany's Development Director had identified individuals and civic organizations that could provide funds for just such emergencies. And, enough money was available to pay Julio's Car Repair in Rock Island to replace the engine and get the car running again. When there aren't ready answers, Bethany staff members work to create solutions for those in dire and difficult circumstances. Even our Development staff looks for remedies.

You hold in your hands an annual report with many numbers in it. Each year since 1899, those numbers started with ONE. One child needing a foster placement. One family grieving the loss of an infant. One intact family addressing deficiencies in their children's care in order to resolve their DCFS case. One teen housed after couch-hopping for much of the school year. One foster child safely returned home. One eighth-grade class given valuable insights into how their own bodies work, and how to say "No" to unwanted, unwelcome advances. One special education student in the Phoenix-BHASED School successfully graduating after six years of hard work and endless support from her counselor. The numbers that you see on the pages that follow were earned with hard work, long hours, relentless determination, sleepless nights, and perseverance. But they were also accomplished with your help and support. You and countless members of this community take to heart the mission of Bethany for Children & Families: keeping children safe, strengthening families, and building healthy communities. It is my hope, as we start our 125th year of service, that you will continue to support the mission and the work of Bethany.

Sincerely,

A Long Journey To Create a New "Home"

For more than three years, Bethany searched the Quad Cities for a suitable place to call "home." It was evident pre-COVID that a larger agency social service center was needed and that the headquarters at 1830 6th Avenue were inadequate. Finance and HR offices were already in a separate building in an adjacent theatre. Meeting spaces were sacrificed to install cubicles for more caseworkers. All of this was evidence of an increasing number of people calling on Bethany for help.

Since Bethany had outgrown its 6th Avenue location, Management and Board members embarked on an effort to find a new home, one that checked all of the following boxes:

- Location in Illinois with close proximity to I-74;
- Accessible by public transportation;
- Enough square footage to accommodate all of Bethany's Illinois employees and services, with room for anticipated growth.

The agency considered a number of options:

- · Relocating away from downtown Moline;
- Working with a local developer to repurpose a historic industrial structure; or
- Purchasing a building large enough to meet anticipated growth over the next 30 years.

Ultimately, Bethany negotiated with the owners of the Caxton Block building at 1701 River Drive in Moline, entered a lease with an option to buy, then purchased the building in November 2023.

Since 1899, Bethany has enjoyed the generosity of the Quad Cities community in delivering the important and impactful services it provides to children and families. The Management, staff, and Board of Directors look forward to continuing to fulfill our mission in the decades ahead.

Sincerely,

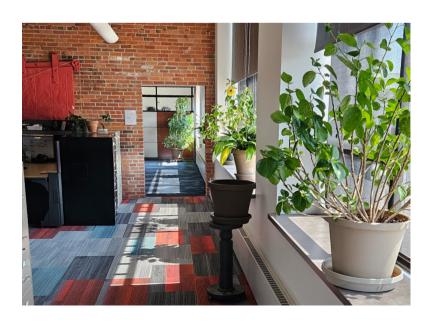

Immediate Past Board Chair

Gift & Uplift

Bethany now begins a $3 million Capital Campaign to secure its new agency social service center. This figure includes the building purchase, moving and renovations, furnishings and equipment, and anticipated increased operating costs over the next several years. Staff moved into the new building in the spring of 2023.

After January 1st the agency will provide an opportunity for you to gift and uplift for this campaign, to ensure the agency and the community have a home in downtown Moline for years to come.
